

Winter Song

for SATB Voices a cappella

Wilfred Owen

Phil Orrin

Lento

Soprano Solo

Soprano mp

Alto mp

Tenor mp

Bass mp

The browns, the ol - ives, and the yel - lows died, And 5

were swept up to hea - - - - - ven;

were swept up to hea - - - - - ven; _____

were swept up to hea - - - - - ven;

were swept up to hea - - - - - ven;

9 and set of sun till

mf

p where they glowed each dawn, (mmm..)

p

(mmm..)

p

(mmm..)

p

(mmm..)

12 Christ-mas - tide and when the land lay pale for them pale -

15 snowed, fell back, and snow-drifts flamed and flowed. From

From

From

From

From

19

off your face, in-to the winds of win-ter, and sun-brown and the 24

with spir-i-tual

mf

p but they shall gleam,

sum-mer - gold are blow - ing. (mmm..)

p

sum-mer - gold are blow - ing. (mmm..)

p

sum-mer - gold are blow - ing. (mmm..)

p

sum-mer gold are blow - ing. (mmm..)

29

— when pal er beau-ty on your brows falls snow-ing, and through those

33

snows_ my looks shall be soft go - ing. The browns, the ol - ives, and the

The browns, the ol - ives, and the

The browns, the ol - ives, and the

The browns, the ol - ives, and the

The browns, the ol - ives, and the 39

yel - - lows died, And were swept up, to yel - - lows died, And were swept up, to yel - - lows died, And were swept up, to yel - - lows died, And were swept up, to yel - - lows died, And were swept up, to 42

heaven;

heaven;

heaven;

heaven;

heaven;